

Announcement ADIVK Award 2018

Annually, the

ARBEITSKREIS DEUTSCHE IN VITRO KULTUREN (ADIVK)

awards prizes for excellent Diploma, BSc, or MSc theses dealing with aspects of plant cell and tissue culture

The ADIVK award is allocated with 250 €.

Theses completed in 2017 or 2018 could be funded, if they have been done at German speaking universities or by German students abroad, and if they address mainly applied aspects of plant tissue culture and its uses in horticulture and agriculture.

Applications are invited to send a summary in electronic form at the latest on April 30th 2018 to:

Dr. Sylvia Plaschil
Julius Kühn-Institut
Institut für Züchtungsforschung an gartenbaulichen Kulturen
Erwin-Baur-Straße 27
06484 Quedlinburg
sylvia.plaschil@julius-kuehn.de

You might be asked later during the evaluation process to send the thesis as a pdf file. The students who get an award will be invited to our annual meeting to present their results in a talk.
